Memorandum

To William Salin, City Attorney  Date April 18, 1978
From R. Steven Hill, Director of Community Development and Planning
Subject Revised Council resolution on the East Central Housing Project

COPIES TO:

Mayor Armstrong
John Nuckols
file:

Just recently, HUD has notified us that they do have funding for the long-awaited East Central Towers project, but not all of it can be reserved for elderly use. The past Council resolutions concerning housing priorities left an implication that exclusive use for elderly was being sought. Therefore, in order to clear all obstacles for HUD to approve the project, the Council resolution needs to be revised to simply call for "primarily elderly" use.

Attached is a draft of a resolution which allows that flexibility while still making the City's position clear to HUD. Would you please make any changes you see necessary and send it with the attached Request for Action to Council. If I can explain further, please let me know.
